Download John King Classical Ukulele Masters

This is one of the best books I have reviewed for classical music on the ukulele. King's arrangements are particularly notable for his extensive use of the "harp style," in which runs are passed across the strings rather than being played consecutively on one string.John King began playing the ukulele in 1960 while living in Hawai'i, receiving his first instruction from his mother, an accomplished amateur.So, you want to learn how to play ukulele, but you’re not sure what uke to buy.
