Hampton Sides is one of my favorite writers of History. Here is a collection of articles written mostly for "Outback" magazine about various people and pursuits in America. Some of it is a bit dated, with stories from back in the early 90's, but there's lots to enjoy here, and an especially riveting article about three people who survived the 911 attacks, and their memories of that day. This item: Americana: Dispatches from the New Frontier by Hampton Sides Paperback $15.00 Only 10 left in stock (more on the way). Ships from and sold by Amazon.com. Sides also examines the nation that has emerged from the ashes of September 11, recounting the harrowing journeys of three World Trade Center survivors and deciding at the last possible minute not to "embed" on the Iraqi front-lines with the U.S. Marines. Americana gives us a sparkling mosaic of our country, in all its wild and poignant charm.
