In this particularly issue a baby gator is located at the local public pool and it's up to the Animal Rescue Team to find him, lose him, find him again, and locate a place for him to be safe and sound. What's more, I adore Sue Stauffacher's writing. Meet the Carters: Mr. and Mrs. Carter, 10-year-old daughter Keisha, five-year-old Razi, baby Paolo, and Grandma Alice. Together, they run Carters' Urban Rescue, the place you call when you've got an animal where it shouldn't be. gator on the loose!
