I was deeply moved and touched by this book. Miep Gies is perhaps the last person alive who knew the Frank family well during that pivotal time when the family were in hiding. As someone who has followed the Anne Frank story all my life it was something special to read this story about someone who could add more pieces to the puzzle of Anne's life. Miep Gies It is 4.40pm on the afternoon of March 25 th 1996 in Los Angeles and a white stretched limousine is stuck in traffic. Lost in the back seat, a small, bespectacled, elderly, grey haired lady smiles wistfully. Miep Gies, Anne Frank Magazine 1998 „Über dich schreibe ich auch“ Neben den täglichen Besorgungen für die acht Untergetauchten (die Familie van Pels und Fritz Pfeffer finden auch eine Zuflucht im Hinterhaus) muss die Arbeit für die Firma so normal es geht weiterlaufen. Reading Anne Frank Remembered, I wept at the desperation that these people endured and at the magnificent beauty of Miep Gies and her strength. I cannot recommend this book enough.
