Book Review: The Art of Teaching Adults: How to Become an Exceptional Instructor & Facilitator by Ann Tomey This is a 140-page book packed with practical ideas of how to help students learn. Leah joined Ariel in the winter of 2014 as Controller, where she oversaw the operations of the accounting department, including helping to design an organizational structure adequate for achieving the department's goals and objectives. Charlie Butchart returned to CPSC in 2014 after two years teaching abroad at Darling Point Special School in Brisbane, Australia. He brings 15 years of teaching and administrative experience in public and private schools in the Triangle area. Awardees will have engaged in the creation, teaching and/or advancement of art through dissemination. They will have shown a commitment to enriching communities through art—by creating or facilitating increased access to art—and made them more beautiful as a result.
