

Download Bankruptcy And Collections The Paralegal Perspective

A People-Oriented Construction Lawyer with a Love of Research – and a Cat! Nan Hannah discovered early in her career that construction law combined with commercial collections gave her the opportunity...OUR MISSION To focus and be guided by a sense of stewardship and the betterment of others, toward providing our clients with the very highest level of service, providing opportunity for all of our people to develop their god-given talents, and to be a force for good in the world.A Maryland Court recently ruled on the extent of powers a Condominium Board had in dealing with a unit owner who was delinquent in assessments (Elvation Towne Condominium Regime II, Inc. v. Rose, 162 A.3d 1027).In Illinois, a Court recently ruled on a Condominium Association's attempt to charge back an insurance deductible to one of its members (Gelinis v.