Blue Notes in Black and White: Photography and Jazz [Benjamin Cawthra] on Amazon.com. FREE shipping on qualifying offers. Miles Davis, supremely cool behind his shades. Billie Holiday, eyes closed and head tilted back in full cry. John Coltrane Benjamin Cawthra introduces us to the great jazz photographers—including Gjon Mili, William Gottlieb, Herman Leonard, Francis Wolff, Roy DeCarava, and William Claxton—and their struggles, hustles, styles, and creative visions. Rare accounts and photos of African-American jazz legends, with some pictures showing how moments of social tension and race in America impinged on the jazz image. Because “Blue Notes in Black and White” leans toward photography with a higher purpose, it has less time for images by more purely journalistic or commercial photographers.
