

Download Canadian Military Atlas Four Centuries Of Conflict From New France

The Canadian Battle Series is the most detailed accounting of any army during World War II ever written by a single author. In recognition of his work, Mark Zuehlke has been shortlisted for the Governor General's History Award for Excellence in Popular Media - The Pierre Berton Award. The award will be presented on Tuesday, November 19th, 2013. Zuehlke lives in Victoria, B.C. A well put together overview of Canada's military engagements over four centuries. While a decent enough book, it suffers from being a general survey, and doesn't really get into the nuts and bolts of any particular period. From the Plains of Abraham to Vimy Ridge to peacekeeping efforts in Kosovo, Canadian soldiers have long offered the greatest sacrifice with tremendous skill and courage. Now, fully updated and for the first time in paperback, the battlefields on which Canadian soldiers fought so valiantly have been mapped out in one stunning full-color volume. The visual story of Canada's distinguished fighting record is told in detailed maps and succinct text. From the plains of Abraham to Vimy Ridge to peacekeeping efforts in Bosnia, Canadian soldiers have long offered the greatest sacrifice with tremendous skill and courage.
