

Download Champagne Brunch Woodrow Wilson

In 1914, President Woodrow Wilson signed a proclamation designating Mother's Day, held on the second Sunday in May, as a national holiday to honor mothers. The eating clubs at Princeton University are private institutions resembling both dining halls and social houses, where the majority of Princeton upperclassmen eat their meals. Each eating club occupies a large mansion on Prospect Avenue (Prospect Street until 1900), one of the main roads that runs through the Princeton campus, with the ... Located in historic Old Town Alexandria behind the Torpedo Factory, Chart House is the area's only waterfront dining location. It boasts panoramic views of the Potomac River, Woodrow Wilson Bridge & the U.S. Capitol Building. Every food-loving New Yorker has an intimate relationship with their local Chinese food joint. It's the corner spot where you began an unlikely romance over quickly congealing chop suey.
