

Download Clifton Chenier King Of Zydeco

Clifton Chenier (June 25, 1925 – December 12, 1987), a Louisiana French-speaking native of Opelousas, Louisiana, was an eminent performer and recording artist of Zydeco, which arose from Cajun and Creole music, with R&B, jazz, and blues influences. Amazon.com. The most essential single disc of accordionist Clifton Chenier, the man who literally invented zydeco, this 15-cut collection is a Chenier greatest hits collection, containing all of the best tracks from his many Arhoolie albums. here is another great cd, without john hart on sax, from the red hot louisiana band, the band plays with excellence. notice cleveland chenier tearing the rubboard up on cliftons boogie woogie and louisiana two step. Cajun & Zydeco Music and Dance in the New York Area brought to you by Laura and friends.