On November 2, 2018, the Ministry of Corporate affairs promulgated an ordinance^[1] (the Ordinance) inter alia amending certain provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 (the Act). It is often assumed that the European Commission is a unitary actor, with a shared set of values. Liesbet Hooghe's book questions this assumption through interviews with over one hundred officials on central issues in the governance of Europe. In the corporate finance tradition, starting with Berle and Means (1932), corporations should generally be run to maximize shareholder value. The agency view of corporate social responsibility (CSR) considers CSR an agency problem and a waste of corporate resources.
