From the opening page of his first published theological work, Swedenborg engages readers in his doctrine of correspondences—the idea that certain words and names in scripture represent, or correspond to, deep spiritual truths. CHAPTER XXIX THE LAW OF CORRESPONDENCES It is said in the Bible that God made man in His likeness, and from hoary antiquity seers and sages have noted a correspondence between the macrocosm, the great world, and the microcosm, the little world, or man. General Characteristics of the Renaissance "Renaissance" literally means "rebirth." It refers especially to the rebirth of learning that began in Italy in the fourteenth century, spread to the north, including England, by the sixteenth century, and ended in the north in the mid-seventeenth century (earlier in Italy).
