People are constantly confronted with the opinions, perspectives and ideas of others. It is very important to be able to navigate this sea of information. To think well is to impose discipline and restraint on our thinking—by means of intellectual standards — in order to raise our thinking to a level of "perfection" or quality that is not natural or likely in undisciplined, spontaneous thought. These lateral thinking questions and answers are useful to develop your lateral thinking. After all, this world needs better lateral thinkers to solve existing problems in fresh approaches. I hope I helped in the creation of one lateral thinker just now.
