Decisions are the heart of success and at times there are critical moments when they can be difficult, perplexing and nerve racking. This side provides useful and practical guidance for making efficient and effective decisions in both public and private life. Fig. 1 reports the total number of conflict events recorded by ACLED in the period 1997–2004, aggregated at the district level. The provinces most heavily affected by the violence were Orientale and North and South Kivu (in the eastern part of the country), the areas in which the concentration of local and foreign armed groups was highest.
