in this part we present five different rankings. these rankings sort countries according to: each of these five rankings captures a different aspect of the world economy. this is well illustrated by the five countries that make it to the top of each ranking. The word "dugong" derives from the Visayan (probably Cebuano) dugung. The name was first adopted and popularized by the French naturalist Georges-Louis Leclerc, Comte de Buffon, as "dugon" in Histoire Naturelle (1765), after descriptions of the animal from the island of Leyte in the Philippines. Our program is based within the Nam Tien Protected Area at the 'Elephant Conservation Centre'. VESA chose this project specifically because it was unlike the majority of elephant camps that currently exist in Asia; the ECC prides itself on its values. The Lao people or Laotians are a Tai ethnic group native to Southeast Asia, who speak the eponymous language of the Tai-Kadai group, originating from present-day southern China.
