At some point, many of us dream of working from home, coffee cup in hand, in a hoodie and yoga pants. Fortunately, there really are many opportunities. Here are 8 jobs you may not have considered. Where I worked the inmates had to put any request for medical care in writing unless it was some kind of emergency. There are drop boxes on all the pods, the inmates put the requests in writing and nursing staff picks up requests twice a day and hold sick call once a day. This exam includes some parts all of the quizzes I offer but you may purchase separately if desired. [Our standard interface uses typical HL7 Version 2.2 or 2.3 records, messages, fields, definitions and processing rules. This document will detail how we use HL7, particularly which messages are used and which fields are required/optional.
