

Download Early Childhood Art Barbara Herberholz

This guide for building effective visual arts lessons is based on the Getty Museum Education department's approach to curricula, which is informed by national and California state content standards and current child development theory.