

Download Encountering God A Spiritual Journey From Bozeman To Banaras Diana L Eck

In Encountering God, Eck shows why dialogue with people of other faiths is crucial in today's interdependent world—globally, nationally, and even locally. She reveals how her own encounters with other religions have shaped and enlarged her Christian faith toward a bold new Christian pluralism. Diana L. Eck is professor of comparative religion and Indian studies at Harvard University, and author of A New Religious America. She was involved in the interfaith dialogue program of the World Council of Churches for fifteen years. Dear Internet Archive Supporter, I ask only once a year: please help the Internet Archive today. Most can't afford to give, but we hope you can. Diana Eck has spent a lifetime studying India, its culture and especially its faiths. As a lifelong Protestant, she discusses how her personal faith has been enriched by studying these faiths, especially Hinduism. Eck has much to say that everyone should listen to when it comes to whether your God is my God, and vice versa.
