

Download Family Dispute Resolution Australia

Family mediation and dispute resolution. Mediation is a way of resolving disputes between people in conflict, usually facilitated by a neutral person. A family dispute resolution (FDR) practitioner is an independent person who helps people affected by separation or divorce to resolve their parenting disputes. This fact sheet is for people who need information on the procedures and requirements for Compulsory Family Dispute Resolution in family law proceedings. Information about dispute resolution and how you can resolve your disputes without the need to go to court, what services are available, how to find them and how to proceed as well as links to brochures and further information.