Long-term, sustainable development will only be possible when women and men enjoy equal opportunity to rise to their potential. But today, women and girls continue to face disadvantages in every sector in which we work, while in some cases, boys are falling behind. For decades, USAID has been leading global efforts to achieve gender equality. Eliminate gender disparity in primary and secondary education, preferably by 2005, and in all levels of education no later than 2015. The developing countries as a whole have achieved the target to ...
