Hawaiians “lost their queen right there, yards from where I’m standing,” said Democratic state Rep. Kaniela Ing while looking out from the Hawaii State Capitol balcony in Honolulu. On March 1, 1893, Princess Ka’iulani, the seventeen-year-old crown princess of Hawaii, stepped onto the pier at New York City. She was greeted by a crowd of reporters and onlookers who knew that, in many ways, she stood at a crossroads in history. According to an article in the Honolulu Civil Beat from June, 2012, the idea of racism and an anti-mainland sentiment could have an impact on Chris Deedy’s criminal trial.
