Fideisms Judaism is the Semitic monotheistic fideist religion based on the Old Testament's (1000-600 BCE) rules for the worship of Yahweh by his chosen people, the children of Abraham's son Isaac (c1800 BCE). Mammal - Form and function: The skin of mammals is constructed of two layers, a superficial nonvascular epidermis and an inner layer, the dermis, or corium. The two layers interlock via fingerlike projections (dermal papillae), consisting of sensitive vascular dermis projecting into the epidermis. The outermost layers of the epidermis are ... Rodents generally have well-developed senses of smell, hearing, and vision. Nocturnal species often have enlarged eyes and some are sensitive to ultraviolet light. Definitions. Tetrapods can be defined in cladistics as the nearest common ancestor of all living amphibians (the lissamphibians) and all living amniotes (reptiles, birds, and mammals), along with all of the descendants of that ancestor.
