The written history of New York City began with the first European explorer the Italian Giovanni da Verrazzano in 1524. European settlement began with the Dutch in 1609. Mayor Bill de Blasio released Housing New York 2.0, expanding the City's housing plan to reach a goal of 300,000 affordable homes created or preserved by 2026. The New York City Housing Authority (NYCHA) provides housing for low- and moderate-income residents throughout the five boroughs of New York City. New York City is in the throes of a humanitarian emergency, a term defined by the Humanitarian Coalition of large international aid organizations as "an event or series of events that represents a critical threat to the health, safety, security or wellbeing of a community or other large group of people." New York's is what aid groups ...
