An actor is a person who portrays a character in a performance (also actress; see below). The actor performs "in the flesh" in the traditional medium of the theatre or in modern media such as film, radio, and television. The D&D Basic Rules document is divided into three parts. Part 1 is about creating a character, providing the rules and guidance you need to make the character you'll play in the game. He called the president a "5th degree black belt when it comes to sexual impropriety allegations." Spalding Gray (June 5, 1941 – January 11, 2004) was an American actor and writer. He is best known for the autobiographical monologues that he wrote and performed for the theater in the 1980s and 1990s, as well as for his film adaptations of these works, beginning in 1987.
