Here are answers to some of the questions about human resources that are received most frequently in an email, and on Facebook, LinkedIn and Twitter. Human Resource Manager must be good at LISTENING when interviewing people for jobs, and also at WRITING reports. They need to be able to ANALYSE the requirements for a particular job (rather like this!) and to MAKE DECISIONS on who to invite for interview. In companies, human resources departments have noted patterns that emerge over time about the toughest situations that take place in organizations. Following are descriptions of the ten toughest, but most frequent, questions that arise, and links to how-to instructions that answer each question. Why HR Interview?
