In A Dark Place-Scary As Hell! This is by far one , if not, The scariest novel I 've ever read. And it is based on true events.(Many eye-witness accounts from:the clergy, police,doctors, and neighbors.)I devoured the book in one sitting,reading far into the night.Big mistake.I read the previous books in this series, and for me, In a Dark Place is the most disturbing by far. By all accounts, the Snedeker family did nothing purposeful to invite the evil that came into their lives and almost destroyed them. It was there lurking in that funeral home long before they showed up, waiting for a chance to assault the living.This story of the most terrifying case of demonic possession in the United States became the basis for the hit film The Haunting in Connecticut starring Virginia Madsen. Shortly after moving into their new home, the Snedeker family is assaulted by a sinister presence that preys upon them one-by-one. Exhausting all other resources, they turn to world-renowned demonologists Ed and Lorraine Warren the paranormal investigators portrayed in the blockbuster films The Conjuring and Annabelle.Note: Citations are based on reference standards.
