"Do yourself a favour and read Independent People. Opening this book is like opening a chest of treasures. Reading this book is like taking the treasures out and appreciating them, savouring them, one by one, sentence by sentence. Independent People (Icelandic: Sjálfstætt fólk) is an epic novel by Nobel laureate Halldór Laxness, originally published in two volumes in 1934 and 1935; literally the title means "Self-standing [i.e. self-reliant] folk". Independent People has 7,559 ratings and 1,088 reviews. Dolors said: Little I did I foresee that I would warm up to Bjartur, the roguish farmer, the more... Independent People is one of my Top Ten Favourite Books of All Time." —Annie Proulx "There are good books and there are great books and there may be a book that is something still more: it is the book of your life. . . ."
