The question–answer relationship (QAR) strategy helps students understand the different types of questions. By learning that the answers to some questions are "Right There" in the text, that some answers require a reader to "Think and Search," and that some answers can only be answered "On My Own," students recognize that they must first ...In my recent post about starting faith conversations with kids, I pointed out that it's one thing to acknowledge we need to be intentional in fostering the deeper conversations of faith; it's another thing to have a plan for what those conversations should be. The timeworn and pedestrian answer is simply "to get to the other side." Here are some creative and original answers: The chicken crossed the road. QUESTION OF THE DAY: What does a thick husk on ears of corn mean? ANSWER: In weather folklore, if corn shucks are thicker or tougher than ordinary, a rough winter may be ahead.
