Excellence in Educating Gifted & Talented Learners by Joyce VanTassel-Baska, et. el. Characteristics and needs of the gifted, combined with grouping, acceleration, and a comprehensive model of program development, with special attention given to the study of math, science, social studies and the humanities...Gifted Students at Risk: low income gifted children are at risk for underachievement, not attending college, and more. Intellectual giftedness is an intellectual ability significantly higher than average. It is a characteristic of children, variously defined, that motivates differences in school programming. The Davidson Institute's mission is to recognize, nurture and support profoundly intelligent young people and to provide opportunities for them to develop their talents to make a positive difference.
