Lean Lesson Planning: A practical approach to doing less and achieving more in the classroom (High Impact Teaching) 1st Edition So much happened when the Lean Startup Community came together in Las Vegas last month for this year's conference that I'm still processing it all. Quotes. What information consumes is rather obvious: it consumes the attention of its recipients. Hence a wealth of information creates a poverty of attention, and a need to allocate that attention efficiently among the overabundance of information sources that might consume it.
