

Download Living The Future In Dialogue

All Living Building Challenge projects have a twelve-month performance period and are audited by a third party before they can receive certification. The Institute offers optional two-part certifications (recommended).
Living Building Certification: Requires all Imperatives assigned to the
What is the International Living Future Institute? The International Living Future Institute (ILFI) is a nonprofit working to build an ecologically-minded, restorative world for all people.
Congregation for Catholic Education (for Institutes of Study) Educating to Intercultural Dialogue in Catholic Schools Living in Harmony for a Civilization of Love
People as Living Things —The Psychology of Perceptual Control “I started reading your book to see whatever you have to say about systems.