Grace Livingston Hill's first book was a children's story, "The Esselstynes" "Lo, Michael" was set at Rollins College in Winter Park, Florida, where Grace taught physical education in the 1890's. In Grace's books, the dear aunt with those dove-gray dresses is most certainly Grace's "Auntie Belle." Grace Livingston Hill's love for humankind shines through her character's journey to manhood. Mickey, a young newsboy, saves the life of heiress Starr Endicott by taking a gunman's bullet himself.
