Today its archaic to me. Please look at some of the newer books ( this was written in the early 90's i believe) most specifically, Overcoming borderline personality disorder which is cutting edge information on the disorder and is valuable to both the person struggling with it, and those who either love or treat that person. Borderline personality disorder accounts for almost 25 percent of psychiatric hospitalizations in this country. "Lost in the Mirror" takes readers behind the erratic behavior of this puzzling disorder, examining its underlying causes and revealing the unimaginable pain and fear beneath its surface.
