Notes on a Scandal is a 2006 British psychological thriller-drama film, directed by Richard Eyre and adapted from the 2003 novel of the same name by Zoë Heller. Scandal is a 1989 British drama film, a fictionalised account of the Profumo affair that rocked the government of British prime minister Harold Macmillan. All-the-while, the Minister has known that the problem is limited to the smart card readers. To be clear, the problem is not with the equipment; all that needs to be done is for the smart card readers to be removed.
