In mathematics, computer science and operations research, mathematical optimization or mathematical programming, alternatively spelled optimisation, is the selection of a best element (with regard to some criterion) from some set of available alternatives. Cambridge University This is a concise, insightful introduction to the field of numerical linear algebra. The clarity and eloquence of the presentation make it popular with teachers and students alike. From Linear to Nonlinear Optimization with Business Applications. This site presents a simple alternative approach to solve linear systems of inequalities with applications to optimization problems with continuous almost differentiable objective function with linear constraints.
