For three decades in the fifth century b.c. the ancient world was torn apart by a conflict that was as dramatic, divisive. Although this book clearly comes from the "Great Man" of history school of thought, it is elegantly written and eminently readable. While Kagan clearly admires Pericles, in the final chapters he criticizes the policies of Pericles (especially the Megarian Decree) that led to the (Second and main) Peloponnesian War. Der Neokonservatismus, auch Neokonservativismus, (griechisch νέος néos, deutsch ‚neu‘ und lateinisch conservare, deutsch ‚erhalten, bewahren‘) ist eine politische Strömung.
