The timeworn and pedestrian answer is simply "to get to the other side." Here are some creative and original answers: The chicken crossed the road. My daughter enjoys going to Mathnasium. Although she does well in math, she has significantly improved and excels because of her experience at Mathnasium. Over the course of 300-plus pages, Olsen and Schaeffer thresh through the recollections of the Class of '77 (plus some overlap in either direction) to document the Iowa experience.
