Pentecostalism and globalization : the impact of globalization on Pentecostal theology and ministry. [Steven M Studebaker;]The other contributions explore the impact of globalization on traditional areas of Pentecostal theology, such as Spirit baptism and speaking in tongues, and twenty-first-century Pentecostal ministry.Globalization and the Pentecostal. by André Droogers. Introduction. The characteristic of Pentecostalism that seems to have attracted most attention, is its rapid expansion. Latin American Pentecostalism is a particular case in point, and as such has been the subject of considerable study from the 1960s onwards. More recently, Pentecostal growth in other continents has also become the object of research.
