"There is more repression of individual freedom here, than in any country we've been to; the police patrol the streets, carrying rifles, and demand your papers every few minutes ... the atmosphere, here, is tense, and it seems a revolution may be brewing. The Moro conflict is an insurgency in the Mindanao region of the Philippines. Due to marginalisation produced by continuous Resettlement Policy sustained at start of Mindanao and Sulu inclusion to the Philippine Commonwealth territory of 1935, by 1969, political tensions and open hostilities developed between the Government of the Philippines ...²⁴ Social Movements and the Dynamics of Collective Action Abstract This chapter is devoted to the mechanisms of engagement and disengagement in collective action as they are currently conceived in social and political psychology.
