When individuals, businesses or organizations show support of a project with money, these projects are considered privately funded projects. Privately funded refers to the source of the money for the project, business or endeavor. If the money is raised through donations, the money comes from the private sector or funds. If the government provides financial support for a specific project, the money comes from taxpayer contributions or public funds. Although the UK created the model for public/private sector partnership schemes in the 1990s, 30 new-build projects with a value of just $4.85bn were launched in the year to December 2016 ... The private finance initiative (PFI) is a procurement method which uses private sector investment in order to deliver public sector infrastructure and/or services according to a specification defined by the public sector. PUBLICLY FUNDED BIOMASS-TO-ETHANOL RESEARCH AND INTRODUCTION One of the main functions of government is to invest tax dollars in programs, projects, and properties that will result in greater social benefit than would have resulted from leaving those tax dollars in the private sector or using them to pay off the public debt. One traditional area for investment by government is R&D. According ...
