Three Raymond Chandler short stories featuring Philip Marlowe done graphic novel style. One of them worked for me and the other two didn't. The good one is "Goldfish" chiefly because of Rian Hughes great retro art style, which reminded me a little of Darwyn Cooke. Marlowe, the Graphic novel: The Authorised Philip Marlowe Graphic Novel (Trilogy of Crime) | Raymond Chandler, Tom DeHeaven, Jerome Charyn, James Rose | ISBN: 9780743474894 | Kostenloser Versand für alle Bücher mit Versand und Verkauf durch Amazon. Raymond Chandler's Marlowe: The Graphic Novel, A Trilogy of Crime is a series of 3 stories in 1 book (2 B&W art, 1 color ART with a great cover by Jim Steranko). This adapts Chandler's stories: GOLDFISH, TROUBLE IS MY BUSINESS and THE PENCIL. The adaptations are all terrific and spot on with the novels. Nobody but Raymond Chandler (1888-1959) could have created a private eye hero as cool as Philip Marlowe, but writers have been trying ever since the author's precedent-setting crime novels were published.
