The Celiac Disease Foundation 2017 Year in Review Each year, the world's leading experts representing every aspect of celiac disease research, education, and advocacy gather at the International Celiac Disease Symposium (ICDS). Estée Lauder's Double Wear Stay-In-Place Foundation ($42) has been around for awhile — it even won the crown for best Medium-to-Full Coverage Foundation in our 2016 review. But even against hundreds of other initial contenders and dozens of new, highly-buzzed formulas, it still earned a place in the top again.
