TESOL is governed by an elected board of directors. The TESOL executive director serves as an ex-officio member of the board. All TESOL members in good standing are eligible to vote in the board of director's election each year. Free corporate resolution template. A corporate resolution is often made during the course of the year for important decisions. When a corporation has multiple shareholders and multiple directors it is very important to document your decisions. The Board of Directors is ultimately responsible for the management and the organization of the Company. The members of the Board of Directors are elected at the Annual General Meeting and the Board of Directors shall be comprised of no less than five and no more than nine Directors with a maximum of four Deputy Directors. Selected for their varied skills, the board members are responsible for delivering sustainable shareholder value. Discover our Directors' biographies.
