

Download Sheltering Down Under Oceania

AUSTRALIAN CIVILIAN NURSES AS VIETNAM VETERANS. Another "Brave Women" page... As a result of exposure to various elements of the war in Vietnam, many nurses who served there are now ill or ailing and the civilian nurses are getting no compensation for their disabilities. As nationalist MPs continue to criticise Canberra and with more protests held on Wednesday in Madura and outside the Australian embassy in Jakarta, Indonesia's cartoonists won't be laying down ... The first public thermae of 19 BC had a rotunda 25 metres across, circled by small rooms, set in a park with artificial river and pool. By AD 300 the Baths of Diocletian would cover 140,000 square metres (1,500,000 sq ft), its soaring granite and porphyry sheltering 3,000 bathers a day. The Silver Bear Cafe keeps its subscribers informed on issues that adversely affect the conservation of capital and strategies to preserve and increase ones financial security.