Christian persecution in China is re-intensifying, this time aided by big data and artificial intelligence (see 2018 update at the bottom). Chinese Communist Party denies any Christian persecution in China, and has convinced some high profile Westerners and even missions organizations that Christian persecution in China is no more. Underground Church - Under Xi Jinping, the underground church in China is under unprecedented persecution that involves not only Mao-era brute force but also mass surveillance using 600 million CCTV cameras, face-recognition artificial intelligence, big data and a new 'social credit' system that scores and requires every Chinese citizen to ...

Republic of China, as a country in East Asia, controlled Chinese mainland from 1912, when it was established by Xinhai Revolution, which overthrew Qing dynasty, the last imperial dynasty of China, to 1949, when its government fled to Taipei due to Kuomintang's failure in Chinese Civil War. The Neolithic age in China can be traced back to about 10,000 BC. Early evidence for proto-Chinese millet agriculture is radiocarbon-dated to about 7000 BC. The earliest evidence of cultivated rice, found by the Yangtze River, is carbon-dated to 8,000 years ago. Farming gave rise to the Jiahu culture (7000 to 5800 BC).
