Between 1939 and 1945, hundreds of European cities, towns and villages were devastated by aerial bombing; around 600 Strategic bombing during World War II was the sustained aerial attack on railways, harbours, cities, workers' housing, and industrial districts in enemy territory during World War II. The Blitz; Part of the Western Front of World War II: Heinkel He 111 bomber over the Surrey Commercial Docks in South London and Wapping and the Isle of Dogs in the East End of London on 7 September 1940 World War II was the most destructive enterprise in human history. It is sobering to consider that more resources, material, and human lives (approximately 50 million dead) were expended on the war than on any other human activity.
