Sally Wade has shared her life, love and heartache in this volume of notes, cards, letter, drawings and conversations with a man that the world views as a ground breaking, comedic genius; George Carlin. This book kept me laughing, and gave me great insights into both Sally Wade and George Carlin--their thoughts and their writing. It's like a how-to guide, delving into the way two very funny, talented, intellectual people negotiate their way through the pitfalls of relationships and keep each other happy.
