Tom Spanbauer

The Man Who Fell in Love with the Moon is a 1991 novel by American author Tom Spanbauer set at the beginning of the 20th century. Told primarily in flashback by its protagonist, a biracial Native American named Out-In-The-Shed, most of the action occurs in the late 19th century in the fictional town of Excellent, Idaho, as Shed grows up, learns about his parents, and falls in love. The work is Spanbauer's second novel. The Man Who Fell in Love with the Moon is an American epic of the old West for our own times -- a novel huge in its imaginative scope and daring in its themes. Portland author Tom Spanbauer sure is more gray-haired in person than in the photo on the back cover of The Man Who Fell in Love with the Moon—but then, I'm a lot grayer than I was in 1991 as well.
