Introduction to African Philosophy Study Guide .pdfThe id, ego, and super-ego are three distinct, yet interacting agents in the psychic apparatus defined in Sigmund Freud's structural model of the psyche. There is ongoing disagreement (and no general consensus) as to whether animism is merely a singular, broadly encompassing religious belief or a worldview in and of itself, comprising many diverse mythologies found worldwide in many diverse cultures. A philosophical study of love is highly relevant today, since the sciences have not adequately answered the perennial question: What is love? Since the time of Socrates, the idea of love and the conception of the human heart have been devalued by
