

Download The Sovietization Of Eastern Europe New Perspectives On The Postwar Period

Europe. World War I had radically altered the political European map, with the defeat of the Central Powers—including Austria-Hungary, Germany, Bulgaria and the Ottoman Empire—and the 1917 Bolshevik seizure of power in Russia, which eventually led to the founding of the Soviet Union. [by Alexander B. Rossino] Over the past decade research about the genocide of the Jews in Eastern Europe focused increasingly on developments in the so-called "regional periphery" of Nazi-dominated Europe, rather than on the decision-making process at the "center" in Berlin.
